

Alina Meyer

Human Rights & EDI Consultant

An independent consultant with more than two decades of experience focusing on human rights, gender equality, diversity, and social inclusion.

She is an independent consultant with decades of experience in the area of human rights, gender, diversity and social inclusion. A former Canadian diplomat and development practitioner, she has consulted for clients including the World Bank, the Green Climate Fund the Alliance for Financial Inclusion, UK DFID (FCDO), German GIZ, Australian DFAT, the UN, and a variety of NGOs such as Care, Girl Effect, Nutrition International, Oxfam, and Planned Parenthood. Prior to consulting, she worked for Global Affairs Canada as the Senior Policy Advisor on Women's Rights and as a Gender Equality Specialist.

- Key Experience: Served as a former Canadian diplomat and a Senior Policy Advisor on Women's Rights for Global Affairs Canada.
- Global Clients: Consulted for major international institutions including the World Bank, the UN, Oxfam, and the Green Climate Fund.
- Education: Holds a BA from McGill University, a Master's in Human Rights from the London School of Economics, and a Master's in Social Anthropology from the University of Oxford.

Alina speaks English, French and Spanish. She has lived in 12 countries, including Japan, Ethiopia and Fiji, and worked extensively across Asia-Pacific, Africa and the Americas.