

Kinan Abou-Jaib is a professional working in the fields of law and finance, currently based in London, United Kingdom. Speaks English and Arabic fluently.

Professional Background

- Expertise: Specialises in corporate financial management, accounts payable, and online banking platforms and as a Paralegal at his own law firm.
- Core Responsibilities: Manages international supplier invoices, handles multi-currency transactions, and coordinates secure payment authorisations via HSBC.Net.
- Affiliations: Associated with sustainable innovation companies, including Pangaia Materials Science Ltd and Technical & General.
- Education: Completed 4 Law Degrees including Masters at a variety of institutions including University of Westminster, Manchester Metropolitan University and University of Damascus.